Dear Mrs. Doe

The Headquarters and Alpha Company command team has addressed your complaint to the IG concerning spousal support requirements. Per your complaint, we understand your position to be that SPC Doe, your husband, has not provided you any financial support since you have lived separately.

In according with AR 608-99, "Family Support, Child Custody, and Paternity", Soldiers are required to manage their personal affairs in a manner that does not bring discredit upon themselves or the U.S. Army. This responsibility includes: (1) maintaining reasonable contact with family members so that their financial needs and welfare do not become official matters of concern for the Army; (2) conducting themselves in an honorable manner with regard to parental and (4) complying with all court orders.

In this instance, SPC Doe has been advised by legal to pay you $810.12 a month beginning 1 October 2023, unless there is a court order or written agreement providing for a different amount. Please understand the military has no authority without a court order to force a Soldier to pay support against his will.

If there is anything else we may do for you in the future please contact the command team directly via email: captain.l.jack.mil@army.mil. We can also be reached at our office at (706) 791-0000. Again, we thank you for bringing this matter to our attention and appreciate your support.

Sincerely,
