Target Audience: Active Duty and Family Members

Description: This program is dedicated to the prevention, prompt reporting, intervention and treatment of spouse and child abuse. Family Advocacy Program works with individuals and Families to enhance individual coping skills and strengthen Family relationships. Some of the services available through ACS FAP are:

Emergency Shelter: FAP provides a safe environment for Family members who are at risk for Family violence.

Emergency Transportation: Transportation (in the form of a cab service) is arranged to assist during an emergency.

Emergency Respite Care: Child care arrangements are made to assist the primary care taker or to facilitate treatment for Families. New Parent Support: Family Advocacy offers a New Parent Support Program that includes home visitations, parent education classes, three weekly developmentally appropriate "Playgroup" sessions for infants, toddlers, preschoolers and their parents. Victim Advocacy: Professional advocates work on behalf of victims of domestic violence. Advocates promote the expressed interest of the victim. They coordinate emergency services, conduct safety assessments, make referrals, and provide training. Restricted and unrestricted reporting options are available.
