

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
HEADQUARTERS UNITED STATES ARMY CYBER CENTER OF EXCELLENCE
AND FORT GORDON
506 CHAMBERLAIN AVENUE
FORT GORDON GEORGIA 30905-5735

ATZH-CG

30 October 2015

MEMORANDUM FOR ALL MILITARY AND CIVILIAN PERSONNEL

SUBJECT: Commanding General's Policy Memorandum No. 6 - Retention Incentive and Awards Program

1. REFERENCES:

a. AR 601-280, Army Retention Program, 31 January 2006 (RAR) 15 September 2011

2. Retaining highly qualified Soldiers is essential to the success of our Army. As leaders, our retention mission is to reenlist our eligible Soldiers or transition them into the Reserve Component. The goal of the Fort Gordon Retention Program is to meet all retention objectives.

3. Commanders will maintain retention incentive programs that officially recognize Soldiers who reenlist, or transition into the Reserve Component. In addition to unit incentive programs, Commanders, at their discretion, will award a three-day pass on behalf of the Commanding General to all Soldiers who reenlist. Commanders will continue to support the Home Town Recruiting Program by showcasing our best Soldiers in their hometown.

4. Commanding General's Retention Excellence Awards Program.

a. Annual Award Program:

(1) To be eligible for a yearly award, brigade/separate battalions must successfully accomplish every quarterly mission in all categories, or if the Installation accomplishes each quarterly mission, then all subordinate units will be considered successful under the Team Concept Plan.

(2) Successful units will receive the Commanding General's Excellence in Retention plaque and a training holiday. The servicing Career Counselors and fulltime Reenlistment NCOs will receive an appropriate award.

b. Quarterly Award Program:

(1) To be eligible for a quarterly award, brigade/separate battalions must achieve command-directed glide path in all categories.

ATZH-CG

SUBJECT: Commanding General's Policy Memorandum No. 6 – Retention Incentives and Awards Program

(2) Quarterly successful units will receive the Commanding General's Excellence in Retention plaque. The servicing Career Counselors and fulltime Reenlistment NCOs will receive a Certificate of Achievement.

5. IAW AR 601-280, Chapter 2, paragraph 2-2d(14), all Commanders must implement an awards program at their level. The type of recognition or reward is at the discretion of the Commander.

6. Special Recruiting Missions: Commanders will support all special recruiting missions by promoting maximum participation and advertisement of all special recruiting briefings. Commanders will mentor and recommend outstanding Soldiers for officer commissioning programs. Commanders will conduct annual retention training during OPD and NCOPD sessions.

7. Our job as leaders is to develop and retain highly qualified Soldiers. As the Army continues to meet global and domestic commitments, it is essential that leaders strive to maintain the force. Any effort put forth today is an investment in our future Army.

8. This policy letter is effective until superseded or rescinded.

9. The point of contact for this memorandum is the Installation Retention office at 791-1994 or 791-4263.

STEPHEN G. FOGARTY
Major General, USA
Commanding